The strategies will (mark all that apply)

- Provide opportunities for all children, including subgroups of students, to meet the challenging Missouri Learning Standards.

Description of how strategy/strategies will provide

Supplemental ELA course is provided for 7th and 8th grade students to help meet the MLS. A supplemental Math course will also be provided for 6th grade students. Before and after school tutoring is also available for students in math, ELA, and science.

- Use methods and instructional strategies that strengthen the academic program in the school.

Description of how strategy/strategies will strengthen

The district uses the IPI to measure the amount of higher order/critical thinking activities are being done within the classroom. Based on the results from each collection, teachers work to improve and implement more higher order activities within the classroom. The district is also working on implementing proficiency scales so that students are able to measure and track their own progress. Teachers the high school are also working to create an academic vocabulary list to be used district wide. The district continually reviews resources being used and updates resources as needed.
